Sainte-Catherine-de-la-Jacques-Cartier, le 3 février 2009 – The Hôtel de Glace now has a small brother down town Montreal. The same team that builds the Hôtel de Glace has relocated at the restaurant le Garçon! for a short period to create an Ice Bar. After building an igloo in Canada's fare north the expertise team has migrated south on Sherbrooke Street to create this unique art work.

This Ice Bar will be located on the front terrace of the restaurant. Visitors and guests will be able to enjoy a cocktail from 12:00 pm to 9:00 pm starting on the 28th of January.

"After almost 10 years the Hôtel de Glace's expertise team has gained recognition for its artistry, professionalism and vision when building snow and ice structures. At the Hôtel de Glace we strive on challenges and we are very proud to be a part of this project with Garçon!" mentions Jacques Desbois, Chief Executive Officer of the Hôtel de Glace.

The restaurant Garçon! was named by EnRoute magazine "best new restaurant in Canada!"
