SPECIAL GUESTS TO ICE HOTEL THIS WEEKEND

(Sainte-Catherine-de-la-Jacques-Cartier, Quebec) February 8, 2003

Ice Hotel greeted prestigious guests this weekend. First of all, the American ambassador to Canada MR. Paul Cellucci accompanied of his spouse and Ms Susan Keogh-fisher, general Consul of the United States in Quebec City enjoyed a visit guided by the CEO of Ice Hotel, MR. Jacques Desbois. The American delegation was astonished in front of the beauties of the place and according to tradition to Ice Hotel, all clinked glasses with the famous glasses made of ice!

Four other American are also celebrities this weekend since they are themselves clients that some are to their second one and even third experience to Ice Hotel! In fact, MR. and Ms Brandernburg, residents of Miami, Florida, slept to Ice Hotel for a third consecutive year and it is the second year for Suzanne Delucia, of Wyckoft, New Jersey who brings friends to share her fun adventures. Ice Hotel is overwhelmed of such faithful customers since for the majority of the people it is a once in a lifetime experience.

Photos in high resolution of the ambassador visit as well as the special overnight guest are available.
